

Children in Japan

Jane Imamura

Do you - know, that children in Ja - pan,
A sa ha - ya ku, means ear - ly in the morn,
Oh, but there's one thing, I clear - ly un - der stand, go to Dhar - ma School, and learn of Buddha's love?

min - na na - ka - yo - ku, every bo - dy's friends, But When we join our voices, to - ge - ther we would say, when I lis - ten closely, I can - not un - der - stand, for o - te - te - o a - wa - se, put our hands to - ge - ther Na - mu a - mi - da bu - tsu, Na - mu a - mi - da, for words we ut - ter here, are not the words they say o - ma - i - ri shi - ma - sho means let us thank our Lord, words we ut - ter here, are same as words they say.
