

To promote a greater understanding and appreciation of Jodo Shinshu Buddhism and to continue to live the Nembutsu as a warm and friendly temple

OUT OF THE MUD GROWS THE LOTUS

By Rev. John Iwohara

I would like to begin my article by first apologizing to all the members and friends of the Venice Hongwanji for my conspicuous and disruptive absence from our recent Obon and Hatsubon service. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Rev. Tetsuo Unno for suddenly and abruptly having to serve as the Officiant for the service. I would also like to thank everyone who helped out and came to the service who, despite my absence, still was able to make the service go as smoothly as it did.

I wanted to mention these things because this is what I sincerely feel, but also because this last experience has helped me to understand a couple of the more fundamental and basic teachings or concepts of Buddhism and Jodo Shinshu a little more deeply, and how these teachings help me to understand my daily life.

The first concept I would like to touch upon is the law of impermanence. I have mentioned previously that one of the great “gifts” of becoming a Jodo Shinshu priest is the fact that you are in a place where you cannot help but to notice how you are being raised or fostered in your understanding of the Dharma. In the Tannisho (A Record in Lament of Divergences), for example, is the following quote:

Reflecting now once more on this expression of Shinran's inmost thoughts, I find that it does not differ in the least from those precious words of Shan-tao:

Know yourself to be a foolish being of karmic evil caught in birth-and-death, ever sinking and ever wandering in transmigration from innumerable kalpas in the past, with never a condition that would lead to emancipation. (Collected Works of Shinran, p. 679)

Although I am someone who has had the wonderful fortune of having been able to study Jodo Shinshu formally at what is arguably the foremost center of Jodo Shinshu studies and education, it also seems that despite knowing about and having even taught on the subject of impermanence, it is still something that I find myself constantly ignoring or part of the reason why there is no condition that would lead to emancipation within me.

In preparation for the Obon service, I had set up everything for the O-naijin (“inner altar area”) except for the red altar candles and the Hatsubon cards. Because it was already 7 p.m. by the time I had set up everything else I thought that I would go home and come back early the next morning to set up the candles and cards. Service starts 30 minutes later than usual and it would take less than 30 minutes to set up these final details. In doing this I presumed that things would just go as they normally do. Every day, in other words, should be like every other day. But, this is not what the law of impermanence teaches. And, because of this, early the next morning from about 4 a.m. the health of my son, something else that I presumed, changed for the worse. Here was someone who rarely complains about anything suddenly bursting into my room saying, “My stomach hurts.” I asked, in reply, “What do you want to do? Do you want to go the doctor?” I’m sure that because a couple of his friends were over that he decided to wait and see if his condition would not improve. He would then spend the next several hours suffering from the discomfort associated with diarrhea and vomiting. Finally, after consulting with a telephone health service and then talking with the on-call doctor, it was decided to take him to the Emergency Room. There was no one else at home who could take him and so together with friends in tow, we all went to the UCLA emergency room. While pacing back and forth, worried about both my son and all the families who were taking the time to come to the temple for the Hatsubon service, I kept thinking to myself, “Why didn’t I spend the extra 30 minutes yesterday to finish up all the preparations?” Why or how could I so casually assume that things would be the same?

VHBT'S CONGRESSIONAL GOLD MEDAL RECIPIENTS

On June 9, 2012, more than 1,500 gathered at the Go for Broke Monument in Little Tokyo to honor the members of the 100th Battalion, 442nd Regimental Combat Team, and Military Intelligence Service, who were collectively the recipients of the Congressional Gold Medal. The Congressional Gold Medal is the nation's highest civilian honor. Among those who received the medals at the Los Angeles regional ceremony were Venice Hongwanji Buddhist Temple's own Jim Mayeda, Minoru Shinmoto, and Spud Shiraki.

The 100th/442nd was the most decorated unit in U.S. military history for its size and length of service and the MIS that performed secret intelligence work against the Japanese military, has been cited for its role in shortening the length of the war.

President Obama signed SB S 1055 on October 5, 2010, granting the Congressional Gold Medal to the 100th/442nd/MIS; the actual Congressional Gold Medal Ceremony took place in Washington DC on November 2, 2011.

Maj. Gen. Rodney Kobayashi gave the keynote address at the Los Angeles regional ceremony. Kobayashi stated, "I personally want to thank the soldiers of the 100th Infantry Battalion, the 442nd Regimental Combat Team and the Military Intelligence Service for your sacrifice, your distinguished service, your valor and your courage. As you accept our appreciation for your service you represent every soldier who served in your distinguished unit, especially those who are no longer with us. You have set the bar for me and all the generations to follow, you are my heroes."

FUJINKAI

In keeping with the theme of "Beauty, Community, Society," members of the Fujinaki attended a taping of the Wheel of Fortune television show on October 5, 2012, to share as a community, the delight in being with friends.

The Lady Takeko Kujo seminar held on October 27, was well received and attended by ladies and gentlemen from Senshin Buddhist Temple, Gardena Buddhist Church, San Fernando Valley Hongwanji Buddhist Temple, and of course, Venice. The chairpersons for the seminar were Barbara Fukuji and Alice Ogawa. Guest speakers at the seminar were Rev. Tetsuo Unno, who spoke about the poetry of Lady Kujo, and Nikki Gilbert, owner of Sushi Girl, who gave a lesson on creating sushi. The timeline made by Rev. John on Lady Kujo's life was interesting and informative. Please let Dianne Kujubu Belli, president of Fujinkai, know if you would like a copy. It is well worth having a copy to study for the future.

The Fujinkai commemorated Eshinni-sama and Kakushinni-sama at a Sunday Service on October 28, in conjunction with Dharma School.

The second teaching that I was reminded of is the concept of interdependence. If my wife did not have to go to Japan I would have been able to officiate at the Hatsubon service and the lesson that I learned about impermanence may not have hit me as hard. Although I was not able to make the beginning of the service, after bringing my son home from the Emergency Room, I was still allowed to come to the service late, share in the otoki, and later to officiate at the afternoon service and discussion that is hosted by our YABA. The only reason why I was able to do these things is because of my son's friends who stayed with him before, during and after the health scare. It is because I knew there was someone with my son that I had the luxury of being able to come to the temple and not disappointing even more people. Although having services should make this obvious enough, this episode reminded me again how little we actually do by ourselves and how much we rely on others. That this very simple and obvious truth is constantly forgotten is another reason why there is no condition that would lead to emancipation within me.

How fortunate it is, then, that the Vow of the Buddha was made specifically for someone like me. How even more fortunate I am that I was able to come across a teaching, the teaching of the Nembutsu, that lets me experience and appreciate this good fortune of mine.

NAMO AMIDA BUTSU.

Thomas Yamaguchi, President

I want to thank everyone for all of your hard work and participation at the various activities at the temple. The temple has been bustling with many activities, so we can never get bored. You can log on to the temple website (VHBT.org), and see all the activities happening at the temple. It is with your dedication and participation that makes Venice, the warm and friendly temple.

I cannot believe that 2012 is coming to a close. Where has the time gone?

As I take a moment to reflect on the year, I cannot help but to be thankful. Thankful for the temple, thankful for family, thankful for friends, and thankful for the life I live. We are all very busy with various activities and responsibilities, that it is important to stop and take a moment to see all of the other things around us. This is one of those moments for me. Take a moment, to hug the next person you see, and enjoy the moment.

So, the next time I see you, I will ask permission first, then with your consent, I will give you a BIG HUGE HUG.

The 2012 year ends with the events of Mochi Tsuki (December 8) , Oseibo (December 16), New Years Eve service (December 30). Come join in. Mochi tsuki starts about 7:00 am.

We will start 2013 with New Year's service, and New Year Shinenkai. Keep January 27th afternoon for the 2013 Shinenkai. It will be held at the Venice Japanese Community Center. Take a moment, and come join and spend the time together. To enjoy each others company and to share stories of the past year and the joy of being with each other.

In Gassho,

Tom Yamaguchi

ABA

Carey Tokirio

As we enter the 4th quarter of 2012, I realize how quickly the year is moving along. i wanted to share with you what Venice ABA has been busy with and what is in store over the next few months and into 2013

ABA had the convection oven and charcoal grill running full throttle cooking its Famous Teriyaki Chicken at the Venice Japanese Community Center Festival in late June and annual Obon Festival in July. While the "back of the house" was busy cooking the chicken, the "front of the house" did an awesome job of preparing and serving up the delicious plates.

On August 25th, we held our ABA Appreciation dinner at the 26 Beach restaurant attended by 30 members and friends. It was a wonderful event of delicious dishes and where we had the opportunity to convey our gratitude to everyone for their hard work and dedication. Thank Tom DaVall for making the arrangements for our event!

On September 22nd, we held our annual ABA Memorial service. I would like to thank everyone for their attendance.

On September 29th, Venice ABA participated in the 5th Annual Fun, Food, Friendship event with the Gardena, Nishi and Orange County ABA organizations. OCBC organized a Sake and Food Tasting event at their temple attended by over 80 participants which included an overview of sake/food pairings, a delicious dinner, line dancing lessons and making new friends.

As we enter the last two months of 2012, we will be busy coordinating two important fundraisers. On November 10th, we will be having our annual ABA Steak Feast and Bingo Night. This event always sells out so be sure to get your order in to an ABA member as soon as you can.

On December 8th and 9th, we will be having our 46th annual Mochi Tsuki event. This is ABA's biggest fundraiser of the year! During January 2012, we had the pleasure of presenting our Temple a check for $10,000, the net proceeds from the 2011 Mochi Tsuki event. I would like to thank in advance all of the affiliate organizations, temple members and friends for all of your help in preparing for this fun and exciting event!

Lastly, please mark your calendars for Saturday, August 24th, 2013 for the 50th ABA Anniversary service and luncheon. The way time flies by so quickly, this memorable event will be here before we know it!

BUDDHIST EDUCATION COMMITTEE

Richard Modiano

Last Spring the BEC took over the Annual Film Festival from Dharma School and presented a selection of movies that centered around modern animal fables that have their origin in Buddhist Jakata tales. The movie screened were White Dog, Au Hasard Balthazr, The Birds and the family double feature of Milo and Otis and Winn Dixie. Rev. Iwohara led discussions after each screenings on the Buddhist themes emerging from these stories.

The Spring Ohigan Book Club selection was Coffin Man by Shinmon Aoki. OCBC's Minister's Assistant Jon Turner facilitated the discussion with special insight since he was one of the editors of the English translation.

DHARMA SCHOOL

Jayme Heyl

Dharma School kicked off the 2012-13 school year with our annual Sundae Sunday. Everyone enjoyed ice cream and all of the different toppings. Thank you to Julia Ueda and Nancy Nakagiri for coordinating this event.

We kept ourselves busy in the month of September. On September 23rd the 2012-13 Dharma School Cabinet was installed and we had an installation luncheon at the temple. This year's cabinet is as follows:

Superintendent: Jayme Heyl
Assistant Superintendent: Scot Kawano
Treasurers: Mie Ino, Gail Yoneda and Nancy Nakagiri
Recording Secretary: Richard Modiano
Corresponding Secretary: Julia Ueda
Historian: Janis Ozaki

Then on September 30th we had our first Dharma School Round Table Discussion. Teachers, parents and friends of the Dharma School gathered together to talk about strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats facing the Dharma School. A lot of good discussion took place and was recorded on posters which can be viewed at the temple. Thank you to Emily Kariya for preparing the yummy vegetable curry for lunch!

In October we started our Wisteria Award Class. The Wisteria Award is a 12 hour class focused on Jodo Shinshu and is a follow up to the Dharma Award program that was

JR. YBA

Kelli Tademaru

On September 1st and 2nd of this year, the Venice and West LA Jr.YBA hosted the 2012 Southern District Conference at the Manhattan Beach Marriott. We had many districts attend, including ones all the way from Arizona and San Diego. We had four successful workshops that we ran during the conference. Dr. Duncan Williams was a guest speaker and we are thankful for having him speak at the conference. I am glad to say that the conference was definitely a success.

One of the activities we are planning to do this year is to participate in the Spit and Polish for the Japanese American National Memorial Court on November 3rd. In 2013, we will be hosting Seminar 1. We will be thinking of new workshop and icebreaker ideas for the seminar. We are all looking forward to hosting another fun Jr. YBA event.

DHARMA SCHOOL

started a few years ago and is continued to be offered. The Dharma Award and Wisteria Award are the main forms of training for our Dharma School Teachers. Anyone who is interested in joining is welcome to participate. Please contact Jayme Heyl for more information.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 5325

Court of Awards

On Monday, June 4th, our troop held our Court of Awards ceremony. We had two graduating Ambassadors, Kaitlin Dunlevy and Terumi Yahata, who were presented photo albums celebrating their years in Girl Scouts. Kaitlin also received her Gold Award by working at Kenneth Hahn Park identifying and labeling all the plants in the Japanese garden. She also worked with El Marino Language School with some gardening classes.

All levels received their year-end recognition and badges with 13 Brownies bridging to Juniors. The ceremony was followed by a delicious dinner.

Train Trip

On June 26th, our troop went on a magical journey. We went on a trip to Santa Barbara. That day, we had started out by going on the train for about 2 ½ hours. After we arrived in Santa Barbara, we planned on visiting the local zoo. We saw a lot of pretty animals. We got to feed the giraffes and watch the elephants. We also ate lunch at the zoo. Next we went to the beach. The beach was a lot of fun and refreshing even though the water was freezing. Then we went shopping and it was totally fun! To wrap up the day we all got frozen yogurt and then hopped on the train home.

Welcome Picnic

On Saturday, September 15th, Girl Scout Troop 5325 held our annual welcoming picnic. It was hosted by the 3rd year Cadettes, who organized games and activities for the younger girls. First, we started with a deliciously filled grilled hamburgers and hot dogs, drinks, salads, desserts, and lots of other nice food donated by the parents and families of our troop. After lunch, the girls had a water balloon toss and a refreshing balloon fight. The Cadettes later helped the younger scouts paint their nails with a variety of colors and fun designs. The Cadettes also prepared an exciting scavenger hunt. For this outdoor adventure, clues were written and hidden in different locations. The Juniors and Brownies split into two teams and started the hunt with the first clue that would lead them to where the second clue was hidden and so on. In the end the Brownies won, getting Girl Scout cookie flavored prizes, such as candy bars and chapsticks. The Juniors were disappointed by their loss against the younger girls but still had an amazingly fun time. With that we ended the beginning of another great year of Girl Scouts.

Cadette Outing

On Friday, October 12th, the Cadettes of our troop went out on an outing to the Santa Monica Pier to spend some of the money we earned from selling cookies. Once we arrived at the pier, we ate a delicious dinner at Bubba Gump's. After we devoured our food, we headed to Pacific Park. With full bellies, we successfully rode all the rides without getting sick. We also played many games, with a few girls walking away with stuffed animals. Baring through the cold, many had a snack from the nearby shops, and then we rode some more rides. After a long day, we were pooped. This ended our fantastic adventure at the Santa Monica Pier.

CUB SCOUTS PACK 79

Keiichi Ono

For the month of August,

On August 16th, some of our scouts from Pack 79 attended the Navy LA Event where they got to go on a tour on a Navy ship in San Pedro. Our scouts learned about Navy ships and what Sailors do, tour a brand new destroyer and walk thru their STEM Expo for Kids which teaches kids the importance of studying Science Technology Engineering and Math.

For the month of September,

On September 8th, Pack 79 had their annual kick off picnic at El Marino Park. At the kick off, we played various games with our scouts and enjoyed a nice BBQ with everyone.

On September 15th, some of our scouts from our pack participated in the Heal the Bay – Adopt- A- Beach program where we helped clean up local beaches and inland waterways on a mission to clear the sand and water of harmful and unsightly pollution. California Coastal Cleanup Day is coordinated in Los Angeles County by Heal the Bay in conjunction with the California Coastal Commission and the Los Angeles County Department of Beaches and Harbors.

CUB SCOUTS PACK 79

On September 20th, we had our first pack meeting for the season where we introduced all of our returning and new leaders, committee members and inducted 7 new scouts bringing our total to 62 scouts in Pack 79 for this year. Our guest speaker was Reverend John Iwofara and Temple President Tom Yamaguchi.

On September 21st- Sunday September 23rd, Our Webelo I and Webelo II scout groups went to Camp Cherry Valley at Catalina Island. Camp Cherry Valley is a great weekend camp that allowed our Webelos scouts to earn up to 4 Webelos badges in a single weekend while having fun at various events such as shooting BB guns, shooting arrows at the archery and kayaking on the beach to name a few. Overall, it was fun trip for both Scout and Parents.

DEADLINE FOR ALL ORDERS IS NOVEMBER 25, 2012

On September 29th, some of our scouts from our pack attended the 11th annual Dodger Egg Drop Event at Dodger Stadium. The goal was to test the laws of gravity! The challenge was for scouts to engineer a device that will keep a raw egg from breaking from a 6-story drop! I was told that all of the eggs that were entered by scouts from Pack 79 survived the fall. After the event, all of the scouts were allowed on the field and introduced at the start of a baseball game with the LA Dodgers vs. Colorado Rockies.

TEMPLE CLEAN UP

On September 29th and 30th, we had our boys attend our annual Popcorn Show and Sale at the Ralph's on Lincoln and Maxella and also, Olympic and Barrington. Overall, the event was a huge success. Thank you all who came out to support our fundraising event.

For the month of October,

On Oct 12th and 13th, some of our Cub Scout Leaders attended the BALOO Training (Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation for Cub Scout Leaders) and Leader Specific Training at Camp Josepho in Pacific Palisades.

On Oct 18th, we had our monthly pack meeting where we issued scout awards and a reading log award for scouts who read over 1000 pages over the summer. We also inducted 3 new scouts bringing our total to 65 scouts in Pack 79 for this year.
